Time to Vote on Proposed By-Law Changes

The final vote on the by-law changes will be counted at the April 17th general meeting. There are several ways to register your vote. You can attend the meeting and mark a paper ballot. Should you not be able to attend the meeting, you can respond to the email introduction to the April newsletter stating your acceptance or rejection of the proposed By-law change. All responding emails will be counted with the paper ballots at the April 17th general meeting.

The following proposed change to the TaWS By-law moves the final date to renew membership in the Society. It also clarifies what happens when a member fails to keep their membership current.

Under Article II, Section 2:

Membership dues are payable January 1 and must be paid by March 31st. Nonpayment of dues within the calendar year terminates the membership. Delinquent members will not qualify for any member's exhibition. Unpaid members shall be dropped from the membership rolls on April 1st losing all status and privileges. Former members may rejoin at any time. However, in order to reinstate Signature status, all back dues must be paid.

“Paint-in with Linda Pelc”

The program at the April 17th general meeting features Linda Pelc as the facilitator. Linda will challenge artists to step out of their comfort zone to spark their creativity. It will be a time of fun. Bring paint, paper and brushes. Be prepared to splatter, spit and splash to set the stage for a painting.

For those who want to participate in the Artist Dialogue, please bring either an unfinished painting or one you have given up on. We will look at them up-side-down to figure out how to make them successful.

Hanging at the Library By: Mary Apple

I just finished hanging about twelve paintings on the second floor of the LeRoy Collins Leon County Public Library. They will be there for a month should you like to see the gamut of my painting interests. Most are acrylic with a few watercolors and the supports are canvas, paper, yupo paper and board.

The second floor has a very fine display area with excellent lighting. The staff, especially Donna and KP are wonderfully appreciative and helpful. Each painting has the title, medium, dimension and my name beside it along with a business card, since prices are not to be shown.

It is so much fun to see your own large body of work in one place. I urge you to contact the Operations Manager, Donna Cirenza, to hang your work when my time is up in a month. Donna's number is 850-606-2614.

Plein Air Tallahassee: Paint Out Goodwood Museum and Gardens April 30, 2011

Please join us for paint out at Goodwood Museum and Gardens on April 30th from 8:30 AM to 2:00 PM. This is a popular and easy location to find in the heart of Tallahassee. Goodwood is located behind Tallahassee Memorial Hospital at 1600 Miccosukee Road. The grounds are free and open to the public. The tour of the house is offer for a small fee. Although the house and the outbuilding are the main attraction, this time of the year the rose garden is in full bloom. Plan to come early to beat the heat.

For more information consult their website: www.goodwoodmuseum.org.

Joye Moon Workshop; March 2011 Lorraine Clark, Co-chair Nina Freeman, Co-chair

Joye Moon is a superb artist instructor. Twenty artists, many of them society members and a few out-of-towners, participated in a three day workshop in learning new techniques in water-media. Watercolor can be a lot of fun when we allow it to do its magic. The group was shown how to block and re-direct paint on paper, create textures and introduce patterns by using natural materials as stamps. These techniques are outlined in Joye's book, Exploring Textures in Watercolor.

Also superb was the rented facility – the auditorium at St. Paul's Methodist Church. The room was very spacious and the lighting ideal. Stephanie Corry, the facility manager, was very helpful and accommodating. The cost of the workshop was made affordable through a grant from COCA. All these factors made this an outstanding workshop. Support for creative arts is alive and well in Tallahassee.

These are the artists that attended the workshop: Doreen Schaller, Ken and Linda Menke, Linda Riddle, Emily Hale, Ellen Burger, Nancy Larkin, Debra Lachter, Jan Walker, Penny G. Anderson, Dee Beggarly, Susan Swihart, Mary Gambon, Donna Bonk, Marina Haldas, Janis Spitzer, Stuart Johnson, Susan Phillips, Carla Parris, and Sally Hall.

Life of a Quilt Gadsden Arts Center; Sara May Love Gallery: April 15–July 9, 2011

Tallahassee artist Eluster Richardson is known for unique and expressive paintings that focus on both cultural and familial connections. This exhibition highlights Eluster's concentration on quilts and the rich tradition of quilting in the South. Richardson's paintings will be exhibited alongside antique quilts illustrating quilting culture of the past and present, evoking an emotional and visceral response to the sense of home and tradition that crosses all boundaries.

Go to <http://www.gadsdenarts.org/exhibits> to view a video of Eluster Richardson talking about his Quilt series.

Kanuga Watercolor Workshop

By Nina Allen Freeman

Rosemary Ferguson, Tonya Toole, Mary Apple, Mary Wyatt and Nina Allen Freeman just returned from attending Kanuga Watercolor Workshops in Hendersonville, NC April 3-8. This Tallahassee group stayed in the same cabin together and had a wonderful time, except for the mouse that appeared in the middle of the night and the heater that screamed. The mountains were beautiful with Spring flowers peeking out here and there. Our various workshops were exciting, demanding, informative, and totally wonderful until it was time to pack up on Friday morning to go home! No one wanted to leave these mountain paths and stone buildings, including the mouse! We are home now and ready to share what we have learned, so ask one of us and we will tell all.

Honor in Memory

We sadly report that two long time members of the Tallahassee Watercolor Society have passed on. Clara Felton died peacefully on January 29, 2011. She was a principal artist at Quayside Art Gallery in Pensacola for 35 years, and was also a member of the Tallahassee Watercolor Society. She was known for her seascapes of the Gulf coastline.

John Ebel passed away on March 17, 2011. He was a signature member of the Tallahassee Watercolor Society. He created beautiful paintings of the Tallahassee landscape.

We were honored to have them be part of our society of artists.
